

The Livestock Conservancy Quick Reference Guide to Heritage Ducks

Photos	Breed	Origin	CPL Status	Purpose	Adult Weight M/F (lbs.)	Egg Color	Egg Size	Rate of Lay/Yr	Temperment	Brooding & Mothering Ability	Experience level	Climate	Foraging	Uses and Notes
	Ancona	England	Watch	Meat, Eggs	6.5/6	White, tinted, blue-green, or spotted	Large	210-280	Docile, active	Fair to Good	Novice	Hot and cold	Excellent	Rapid growth; excellent for slug control; can be used for dog herding trials
	Aylesbury (traditional)	England	Critical	Meat	10/9	White or tinted green	Extra Large	35-125	Docile	Poor to Fair	Intermediate	Hot and cold	Fair	Good meat-to-bone ratio; UV will turn pink bills to orange; traditional type can be challenging to breed; need pool to mate properly
	Buff or Orpington	England	Threatened	Meat, Eggs	8/7	White or tinted	Large	150-220	Docile, active	Fair to Good	Novice/Intermediate	Hot and cold	Good	Light pin feather make for a cleaner dress-out
	Campbell	England	Watch	Eggs	4.5/4	White to tinted	Large	250-340	Docile, active	Poor to Fair	Novice/Intermediate	Hot and cold	Excellent	Premier egg layer; very active; can be used for dog herding trials
	Cayuga	United States	Watch	Meat, Eggs	8/7	Black fading to blue-gray and then white by end of lay season	Large	100-150	Docile	Good	Novice	Hot and cold	Good	Many skin this duck rather than pluck because of dark pin feathers; can be used for dog herding trials

The Livestock Conservancy Quick Reference Guide to Heritage Ducks

Photos	Breed	Origin	CPL Status	Purpose	Adult Weight M/F (lbs.)	Egg Color	Egg Size	Rate of Lay/Yr	Temperment	Brooding & Mothering Ability	Experience level	Climate	Foraging	Uses and Notes
	Dutch Hookbill	Netherlands	Critical	Eggs	4/3.5	White to blue-green	Large	100-225	Docile, active	Good	Novice/Intermediate	Hot and cold	Excellent	One of the best foraging ducks; can fly
	Magpie	Wales	Threatened	Meat, Eggs	6/5.5	White	Medium to Large	220-290	Docile, active	Fair to Good	Intermediate	Hot and cold	Excellent	One of the best foraging ducks; drakes have strong sex drive so you should have no fewer than 5 ducks per drake; can be high strung
	Rouen (traditional)	France	Watch	Meat	10/8	White	Extra Large	30-125	Docile	Poor to Good	Intermediate	Hot and cold	Good	Excellent table bird; need pool to mate properly; can be a challenge to breed

The Livestock Conservancy Quick Reference Guide to Heritage Ducks

Photos	Breed	Origin	CPL Status	Purpose	Adult Weight M/F (lbs.)	Egg Color	Egg Size	Rate of Lay/Yr	Temperment	Brooding & Mothering Ability	Experience level	Climate	Foraging	Uses and Notes
	Runner	Malasia	Recovering	Eggs	4.5/4	White to blue-green	Large	200+	Docile	Poor to Fair	Novice/Intermediate	Hot and cold	Excellent	Active; often used for dog herding trials
	Saxony	Germany	Threatened	Meat, Eggs	9/8	White to blue-green	Extra Large	190-240	Docile	Fair to Good	Novice	Hot and cold	Good	One of the best dual purpose breeds; slow growing; lean meat
	Silver Appleyard	England	Threatened	Meat, Eggs	9/8	White	Large to Extra Large	200-270	Docile	Fair to Good	Novice	Hot and cold	Good	Has deep, wide breast

The Livestock Conservancy Quick Reference Guide to Heritage Ducks

Photos	Breed	Origin	CPL Status	Purpose	Adult Weight M/F (lbs.)	Egg Color	Egg Size	Rate of Lay/Yr	Temperment	Brooding & Mothering Ability	Experience level	Climate	Foraging	Uses and Notes
	Swedish	Pomerania (currently Germany & Poland)	Watch	Meat, Eggs	8/6.5	White, green, tinted	Large	100-150	Docile, active	Fair to Good	Intermediate	Hot and cold	Good to Excellent	Does not do well in confinement; color can be a challenge to perfect; can be used for dog herding trials
	Welsh Harlequin	Wales	Watch	Meat, Eggs	5.5/5	White to tinted	Large	240-330	Docile, active	Poor to Good	Novice	Hot and cold	Excellent	Carcass dresses very clean; great dual purpose bird; can be used for dog herding trials