Your Legacy, Their Future

Legacy gifts allow Livestock Conservancy members and supporters to structure charitable giving in a way that is best for their estate. Planned gifts have significant tax advantages and provide for other heirs at lower financial costs. For more information about how you can make a lasting difference for rare breeds, email Karena Elliott, Development Director, at kelliott@livestockconservancy.org.

Please check your information!

This directory is the result of the partnership that exists between The Livestock Conservancy and its breeders and product providers. While we try to provide accurate and current listings of breeders, the animals they breed, and the rare breed products they provide, we sometimes find our listings in need of updating. You can help the Conservancy improve the quality of our directory by checking your listing for accuracy, and reporting any changes in your contact information or changes in the animals you raise and the rare breed products you provide. To make changes, log into your account on the Conservancy website: www.livestockconservancy.org, or complete the update form in the back of the directory and mail to: PO Box 477, Pittsboro, NC 27312

Thanks for your support.

THE LIVESTOCK CONSERVANCY™

Dear Breeders and Consumers,

Conservation is achieved by you – the people who raise and breed rare livestock and poultry and the people who buy their products.

You are the link between farms of the past and consumers of today. You understand that heritage breeds are vital for sustainably managed farms and ranches because these animals are hardy, forage efficient, and climate adapted. You provide and buy nutritious, delicious heritage breed products, and ensure our agricultural future.

A good experience starts here, with The Livestock Conservancy's 2024 Directory. Keep this resource guide handy throughout the year to find:

- breeding stock to start or expand your herd or flock,
- fiber in all its forms for spinning, knitting, weaving, felting, and other fiber projects,
- ranchers raising the same breed that you do,
- eggs, milk, and meat that comes from farms you can get to know personally,
- farm mentors,
- contact information for breed associations,
- pillows, blankets, hides, pelts, fleece, horns, and more!

The connections you make to one another through the printed and online directories forge lasting relationships that save rare breeds. Encourage your fellow farmers and breed association members to list their products with us, too. Like you, The Livestock Conservancy is more committed than ever to conserving rare breeds and working together. The future looks bright.

Sincerely yours,

Judy Brummer
Interim Executive Director

“...when the last individual of a race of living things breathes no more, another Heaven and another Earth must pass before such a one can be again.”

– William Beebe

Terms of Use

The Livestock Conservancy Rare Breeds Directory and Products Resource Guide is compiled and published by The Livestock Conservancy as a reference and networking source for those looking for rare breeds and rare breed products.

The directory and/or any of its data, listings, or other constituent elements may not be republished, resold or duplicated, in whole or in part, for commercial or any other purposes, or for purposes of compiling mailing lists without obtaining the expressed permission of The Livestock Conservancy.

Although The Livestock Conservancy undertakes great efforts to keep the information contained in the Directory accurate, all account holders are responsible for keeping their information up to date. The information is not guaranteed and no responsibility is assumed for errors or omissions.

Privacy Policy

The Livestock Conservancy does not provide its contact list to anyone when the intended use is for personal, commercial, or non-mission related purposes. Currently, the only approved reasons for distributing contact information are as follows:

- The Livestock Conservancy provides breeder information to all members and directory participants in the form of the Rare Breeds Directory and Products Resource Guide. Some participants have opted to be in the online directory with the understanding that their information will be made available on the organization's website to the general public.
- The Livestock Conservancy provides lists of breeders to inquirers for those breeds for which The Livestock Conservancy maintains the registry and for which there is an inactive or nonexistent breed association.
- The Livestock Conservancy provides portions of its contact list to organizations with compatible missions for the purpose of promoting our mission and facilitating networking among supporters.
- In all cases, the sharing of contact information is evaluated on a case-by-case basis and account holders who have requested NOT to have their names shared are edited out of any information sharing.

Breeder & Product Provider Integrity

Satisfied customers are your best advertisers and can go a long way toward promotion and conservation of rare breeds. On the other hand, it only takes one bad experience to generate ill feelings about a particular breed, its breeders, product providers, and The Livestock Conservancy. Buyers expect a high degree of business ethics from the breeders and product providers listed in the Rare breeds Directory and Products Resource Guide and we encourage providers to act responsibly and ethically in their marketing and business dealings with prospective buyers. Consumers also have a responsibility to respect the limited availability and seasonality of rare breeds and their products when they wish to make a purchase.

Of course, The Livestock Conservancy cannot control every seller or consumer, nor be held responsible for their business ethics or personal behavior. We can remind you however, that word travels fast within the rare breed community and can quickly ruin the reputation of both seller and buyer. Serve conservation and promotion of rare breeds well by letting your reputation be made through the integrity of your actions.

Vision Statement

The Livestock Conservancy is a respected leader in breed conservation with regional, national, and international influence. All Conservation Priority List livestock and poultry breeds have advanced to stable and sustainable populations.

Mission

The mission of The Livestock Conservancy is to protect endangered livestock and poultry breeds from extinction.

Core Values

Animal well-being: The Livestock Conservancy supports production and husbandry practices consistent with the historic purposes and uses of endangered breeds, leading to their good health, longevity, and full value in American agriculture.

Quality and integrity: The Livestock Conservancy practices science-based, genetic diversity conservation and emphasizes research and education to expand and share knowledge and understanding of endangered breeds.

Diversity: The Livestock Conservancy emphasizes diversity of culture, perspectives, and practices in the realization of its mission, which leads to greater opportunities for endangered breeds of livestock and poultry, and for human prosperity.

Collaboration: The Livestock Conservancy encourages and participates in cooperative efforts at all levels of the organization's reach by working individually and collectively among and between all members of the heritage breed production chain including breeders, producers, processors, marketers, and consumers.

Stability: The Livestock Conservancy works to ensure the integrity of endangered breed genetic resources by maintaining a strong alliance with breeders and breed associations, promoting breeder livelihoods and breed resilience, and supporting the development of healthy markets and a strong consumer base.

*Varieties that are distinct, but not APA recognized include Chocolate, Jersey Buff, Lavender, Midget White, and other distinct color varieties. Does not include broad-breasted varieties because they are not endangered.

Breed identity in poultry is challenging. Breeders of all kinds, including exhibition, production, and hatchery, are diligent in breeding standard-bred birds. Other breeders sometimes resort to crossbreeding to achieve their goals and promote their birds as standard-bred. The Livestock Conservancy is unable to validate each breeding program, but buyers are encouraged to ask if birds are purebred and meet breed standards.

Learn how to raise rare-breed livestock and poultry

Developed for the particular needs of the working farm, heritage breeds have proved invaluable to small-scale agricultural production for centuries. This comprehensive guide explains why conserving heritage breeds remains important and how they often can be a better choice for the modern farmer than conventional animals. With profiles of heritage poultry, sheep, cattle, and more, you'll learn how to select and successfully raise the breed that is right for your specific needs. Enjoy the benefits of resilient livestock while preserving genetic diversity for future generations.

Master the strategies of long-term survival of livestock, poultry, and dog breeds

Long-term management of rare breeds is a complicated endeavour. For many the challenge of knowing exactly what to do when very short-term actions are needed to rescue a numerically small population of animals remains. Such situations point to a need for a specific set of recipes that can be followed in different situations in order to assure successful outcomes. Each rare breed rescue comes with its own array of specific problems, but several general concepts run through all of them. These concepts provide a good framework for breed rescue work. Managing Breeds for a Secure Future relies on these concepts in order to help breeders chart a course when confronted with a rare population (breed or bloodline) that faces immediate threat of loss. The Third Edition is re-organized to flow better, has additional chapters on specific breeding protocols for maintaining breeds, and delves more deeply into rescuing rare populations, through both theory and practice.

AT PREMIER WE OFFER MORE

First hand experience...

Premier has three farms upon which we raise chickens, ducks, geese, sheep, meat goats and horses. And we've worked hard to find staff with roots in agriculture. It matters because we field test our products to determine their strengths (and weaknesses) before we offer them to you. Traditional farmstores don't do this. Let our folks help you make an educated buying decision.

How to contact us:

 Give us a call at 1-800-282-6631

You'll speak with one of our knowledgeable product consultants in Iowa, and not an overseas call center. And we'll support what we sell, long after a product reaches your door.

 Live online chat—
with a real person!

When our consultants aren't on the telephone, they are available via our online chat software. It's a great way to get a quick answer to common questions. (Available during normal office hours.)

 Ask-An-Expert
email service

Premier has partnered with leading veterinarians and small ruminant nutritionists to offer advice on everything from grazing to general sheep care. Visit our website to learn more.

Educational catalogs

Our unique educational booklets can be mailed to your door. Inside you'll find hundreds of pages of innovative, field-tested poultry and livestock husbandry equipment. Includes more "how-tos", helpful tips and practical advice than any other source.

ADVANCED REPRODUCTIVE TECHNOLOGIES FOR EQUINE BREED CONSERVATION

Second Edition

Kindra Rader-Garcia,
 Charles C. Love,
 Charlene R. Couch
 and Katrin Hinrichs

Santa Cruz Island foals Isabella and Phillie were produced through embryo transfer. Both are owned by El Compeon Farms. Photo by Jeannette Beranger.

Extend your knowledge of equine reproductive technologies

This second edition of Advanced Reproductive Technologies for Equine Breed Conservation offers detailed instructions for the collection, storage and use of sperm, oocytes, embryos and tissues from live and recently deceased animals.

This edition also contains a set of Emergency Instruction Sheets for on-farm use in rescuing sperm, tissues and oocytes when time is of the essence, and an expanded Owner's Resource List provides links to reproduction and tissue preservation laboratories, educational articles, videos, and short courses. Veterinary health providers and owners who work with equines can use this manual to become familiar with the numerous options available for saving important genetics.

THE LIVESTOCK CONSERVANCY™

Advanced Reproductive Technologies for Equine Breed Conservation is available for free download at www.LivestockConservancy.org
 Bound copies are also available for $34.95 + s/h.

Conserving genetic resources

We are focused on the conservation of Black Welsh Mountain sheep and maintaining the existing genetic diversity within North America.

We've developed and implemented sustainable systems to conserve the rare and endangered animals that provide so much for us. Our primary goals are the conservation of genetic resources and promotion of sustainable agriculture systems.

The flock at Desert Weyr is double registered with the American Black Welsh Mountain Sheep Association and in the Black Welsh Mountain Sheep Breeders Association in the UK.

Desert Weyr is the only Black Welsh Mountain flock in the world with EBV data through NSIP. Our flock is OPP free. Export Qualified in the Scrapie Flock Certification Program.

We specialize in entirely grass finished, pasture lambed, easy care sheep

CALLING ALL FIBER ARTISTS

Spin, knit, felt, weave, or crochet with rare wool from endangered sheep. Explore new types of fiber to earn incentives while crafting.

The Livestock Conservancy's SHAVE 'EM TO SAVE 'EM Initiative connects fiber artists to shepherds raising endangered sheep listed on the Conservation Priority List. Create for a cause today.

How to Update Your Listing Online

To update information in your account, please visit the Conservancy's website (livestockconservancy.org) and scroll down until you see these items on the left side of the home page. Click on the one labeled, "Update my Contact Info and Products."

From there, you will be taken to the "ACCOUNT UPDATE FORM." From this form you can gain access to your account details. Scroll down the page and complete the information requested in the form. Then click "SUBMIT."

An access code will be sent to the email address you provided. Please check your email's Spam folder if you do not receive the email within a few minutes.

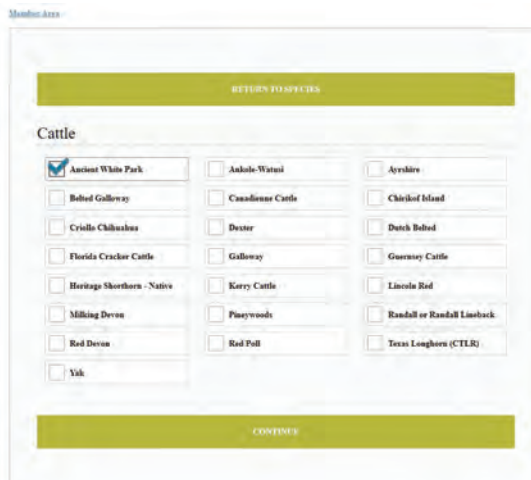

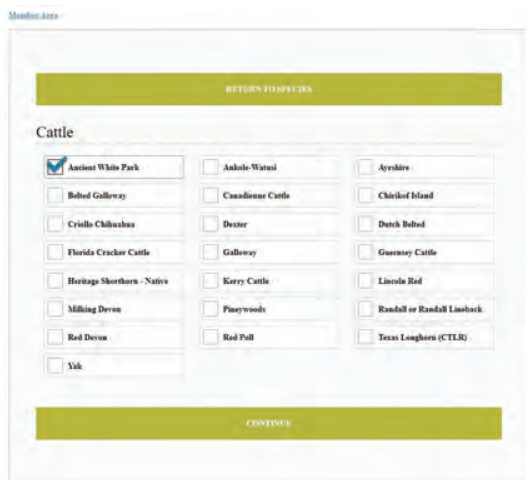

Copy and paste the access code from your email into the "ACCESS CODE" box. Then click "SUBMIT."

On the next page, please check the box for each "SPECIES" you own, then click "CONTINUE."

The next screen will allow you to select each of the "BREEDS" for each species you own.

After selecting breeds, click "CONTINUE" to be taken to the "PRODUCTS" page. Here you can list the products you provide for each breed (breeding stock, hatching eggs, etc). After you complete this section, click "CONTINUE."

The next screen allows you to make changes to your "CONTACT INFORMATION." Be sure all the information is accurate. Scroll to the bottom and click "SUBMIT."

Your updated information may take a few moments to process. Once complete, you'll see a "THANK YOU" screen. Your information will be updated in our database and website. Please note that it may take a few days for the website to be updated with your breeds and products.

Thank you! If you have any questions, please contact us by email (info@livestockconservancy.org) or telephone the office at (919) 542-5704.
